*adapted from Important People
by Michael Stahl*

- 1 The janitor is the person who helps keep the school clean. Every morning students come from all over and walk into the school building. A building can get dirty with so many students. The janitor sweeps and mops the floors to clean up the dirt.
- 2 The teacher is the person who runs the classroom. The teacher helps students learn about different topics and gives them homework. If students don't understand something, they can ask the teacher for help.
- 3 The principal is the person who is in charge of the whole school. The principal is the leader of the school. The principal is in charge of all the teachers at the school. The principal is the person that parents call when they want to talk to someone about the school. The principal has high expectations for the students. The principal makes sure that learning is happening in the school.
- 4 American schools are in a city or town. The city or town has a leader, too. The leader is usually called the mayor. The mayor is in charge of running the city or town. The mayor works with the people to fix the problems of the city or town. The mayor has a lot to do.

No More Housework!

- 1 It is five o'clock in the evening when Renee Wagner comes home from work. She walks into the living room and looks at her three children who are watching TV. The children are 14, 13, and 9 years old.
- 2 The living room is a toxic wasteland. There are empty glasses and dirty socks on the floor, and there are cookies on the sofa. Games and toys are everywhere.
- 3 Renee is angry because the house is a mess. She says, "I can't work all day and then do housework all evening. All you kids do is sit around and watch TV. That's what I'm going to do now, too. I'm not going to do housework. I'm going to watch TV when I get home from work."
- 4 Now, Renee doesn't do anything to take care of the house. She doesn't do the dishes after dinner. She doesn't dust, sweep or vacuum. She doesn't wash the children's clothes or clean the bathrooms. Every evening she sits on the sofa and watches TV.
- 5 After two weeks, every plate, fork, and glass in the house is dirty. All the children's clothes are dirty, too. Every garbage can is full. The house is a mess. Then, one day Renee comes home from work and gets a big surprise. The kitchen is clean. The children cleaned the kitchen!
- 6 The next day, the living room is clean, and the children are washing their clothes. Renee is very happy to see her kids working so hard. She tells them, "I am so proud of you all. I will start doing housework again, but you have to help me. We are all going to work together as a family."
- 7 Now Renee and her three children do the housework together. Then they all sit on the sofa and watch TV together.

7 Which sentence from the story best shows that Renee stopped doing housework?

- A Renee is angry because the house is a mess.
- B "I can't work all day and then do housework all evening."
- C After two weeks, every plate, fork, and glass in the house is dirty.
- D "...I will start doing housework again, but you have to help me..."
